DULUTH, Georgia - NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR) reported financial results today for the three months ended June 30, 2015.

“Our second quarter results were in line with our expectations and we remain on track to achieve our objectives for the full year,” said Chairman and CEO Bill Nuti. “Our constant currency results were driven by balanced performance across all of our businesses, including Retail Solutions where execution continues to improve, and we generated solid free cash flow growth. We also continued to transform our business through further growth of our software revenues, our commitment to a new state-of-the-art world headquarters in Technology Square in Atlanta, Georgia, and the transfer of our UK London pension plan to an insurer. We remain positioned at the forefront of the omni-commerce business environment to deliver innovative software platforms to help our customers meet the needs of the increasingly connected consumer.”

Financial Services Constant currency revenue growth was driven by growth in the Americas, Western Europe and Middle East Africa offset by declines in Russia and China. Operating income was down due to a less favorable mix of revenue in North America and Europe as well as due to lower revenue in Russia and China.

Retail Solutions Constant currency revenue growth was driven by increased spending by retailers in North America and Europe. Operating income was down due to a less favorable mix of revenue in North America and improved significantly as a percentage of Retail Solutions revenue compared to Q1 2015.

Hospitality Constant currency revenue growth was driven by improvements in software-related revenue in the Americas. Operating income was up driven by higher software-related revenue including cloud and professional services revenue.

Emerging Industries Constant currency revenue growth was driven by improvements in our Telecom & Technology business. Operating income was up due to higher services margins.

Free Cash Flow

$ in millions	Second Quarter
	2015	2014
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 167	$ 80
Total capital expenditures	(59)	(73)
Net cash used in discontinued operations	(13)	(22)
Pension discretionary contributions and settlements	—	18
Free cash flow	$ 95	$ 3

Free cash flow improved by $92 million in the second quarter of 2015 as compared to the second quarter of 2014 driven by improvements in cash from operations, lower capital expenditures, and lower discontinued operations.

Other Second Quarter Developments

During the second quarter of 2015, the Company completed another positive step to de-risk the global pension portfolio for investors with the transfer of the UK London pension plan to an insurer. As a result of the transfer, the Company recorded a non-cash settlement charge of $427 million in the Consolidated Statement of Operations as well as an offsetting decrease to prepaid pension costs in the Consolidated Balance Sheet.

Additionally, we were informed by the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission that it does not intend to recommend an enforcement action against the Company following a previously disclosed investigation concerning certain aspects of the Company's compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

The Company's progress to date with the restructuring plan is on track. In 2015, NCR expects to incur a pre-tax charge of approximately $39 million to $64 million with $24 million recorded in the first half of 2015. Cash payments in 2015 are expected to be approximately $71 million to $86 million with $30 million paid in the first half of 2015. Savings are in line with previous expectations with $18 million in 2014, approximately $70 million in 2015 and approximately $105 million in 2016, with about 50% of the savings benefiting NPOI.

2015 Outlook

We are reaffirming our 2015 revenue, non-pension operating income and non-GAAP diluted EPS guidance and increasing our free cash flow guidance. Income from operations (GAAP) and diluted earnings per share (GAAP) guidance has been revised to reflect the impact of the settlement of the UK London pension plan. We continue to expect unfavorable foreign currency impacts of 6% in revenue, $70 million to $75 million in NPOI and $0.30 per share in non-GAAP diluted EPS for full-year 2015.

$ in millions, except per share amounts	2015 Guidance	2014 Actual

- (1) Expected constant currency growth of 5% to 7%, which includes unfavorable foreign currency impacts of approximately 6% in revenue.
- (2) For 2014, actuarial mark-to-market pension adjustment is included; 2015 guidance does not include actuarial mark-to-market pension adjustments, which will be determined in Q4 2015.
- (3) Revised to reflect the $427 million non-cash charge related to settlement of the UK London pension plan.
- (4) NCR expects approximately $215 million to $220 million of other expense, net including interest expense in 2015 and that its full-year 2015 effective income tax rate will be approximately 25% compared to 22% in 2014.
- (5) Free cash flow guidance has been increased to $350 million to $400 million from prior guidance of $325 million to $375 million.

Q3 2015 Outlook

For the third quarter of 2015, NCR expects its as reported revenue to be in the range of $1,630 million to $1,650 million, compared to $1,647 million in the third quarter of 2014. Revenue includes an expected 6% unfavorable foreign currency impact. Additionally, the Company expects non-pension operating income (NPOI) to be in the range of $210 million to $220 million, compared to $204 million in the third quarter of 2014, and income from operations to be in the range of $158 million to $168 million, compared to $41 million in the third quarter of 2014. The unfavorable foreign currency impact on NPOI is expected to be approximately $17 million in the third quarter of 2015. NCR expects its third quarter 2015 effective income tax rate to be approximately 23% and other expense, net including interest expense to be approximately $55 million.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures While NCR reports its results in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States, or GAAP, in this release NCR also uses the non-GAAP measures listed and described below.

Non-Pension Operating Income and Non-GAAP Diluted Earnings Per Share. NCR’s non-pension operating income and non-GAAP diluted earnings per share are determined by excluding pension expense and special items, including amortization of acquisition related intangibles, from NCR’s GAAP income (loss) from operations. Due to the significant change in its pension expense from year to year and the non-operational nature of pension expense and these special items, NCR's management uses non-pension operating income and non-GAAP diluted earnings per share to evaluate year-over-year operating performance, to manage and determine the effectiveness of its business managers and as a basis for incentive compensation. NCR believes these measures are useful for investors because they provide a more complete understanding of NCR's underlying operational performance, as well as consistency and comparability with NCR's past reports of financial results.

Free Cash Flow. NCR defines free cash flow as net cash provided by/used in operating activities and cash flow provided by/used in discontinued operations less capital expenditures for property, plant and equipment, additions to capitalized software, discretionary pension contributions and settlements. NCR's management uses free cash flow to assess the financial performance of the Company and believes it is useful for investors because it relates the operating cash flow of the Company to the capital that is spent to continue and improve business operations. In particular, free cash flow indicates the amount of cash generated after capital expenditures which can be used for, among other things, investment in the Company's existing businesses, strategic acquisitions, strengthening the Company's balance sheet, repurchase of Company stock and repayment of the Company's debt obligations. Free cash flow does not represent the residual cash flow available for discretionary expenditures since there may be other nondiscretionary expenditures that are not deducted from the measure. Free cash flow does not have a uniform definition under GAAP and, therefore, NCR's definition may differ from other companies' definitions of this measure.

Constant Currency. NCR presents certain measures, such as period-over-period revenue growth, on a constant currency basis, which excludes the effects of foreign currency translation. Due to the continuing strengthening of the U.S. dollar against foreign currencies and the overall variability of foreign exchange rates from period to period, NCR’s management uses these measures on a constant currency basis to evaluate period-over-period operating performance. Measures presented on a constant currency basis are calculated by translating current period results at prior period monthly average exchange rates.

NCR's definitions and calculations of these non-GAAP measures may differ from similarly-titled measures reported by other companies and cannot, therefore, be compared with similarly-titled measures of other companies. These non-GAAP measures should not be considered as substitutes for, or superior to, results determined in accordance with GAAP. These non-GAAP measures are reconciled to their most directly comparable GAAP measures in the tables below or, in the case of quarterly free cash flow, in the body of this release.
